

WILLIAMS-FRANKLIN FOUNDATION NEWSLETTER

JANUARY 2019 | VOLUME 1. ISSUE 1

As the Williams-Franklin Foundation (WFF) starts off 2019, the WFF first wants to thank you for your continuous support in 2018. With your generous support, the WFF was able to accomplish so many amazing things that we must share with you! 2018 was a big year for the WFF, and we plan to make 2019 an even bigger year. We look forward to continuing our mission of providing academic scholarships to HBCU students along with other professional development opportunities. We hope you will continue to support our initiatives in 2019

UPCOMING EVNETS

- Annual Cocktail Reception
- Scholarship awards ceremony
- Lecture Series
- Board Meeting

ANNOUNCEMENTS

- Bank of America donated $10,000 in June 2018
- Four New Board Members: Eden Brown Gaines, Thomas Dawson, Rodney Trapp, & Greena Young

FOLLOW US

wffscholarship

wffscholarship

William-Franklin Foundation

Get Your Jingle On: Twelve Days of Christmas, Inc.

The Williams-Franklin Foundation (WFF) received $5,000 from the Twelve Days of Christmas DC Chapter. The gift was presented on Thursday, December 6, 2018 and the donated funds will carry on the mission of the Williams-Franklin Foundation to provide academic scholarships, career development and mentoring opportunities to students with extreme financial needs who attend historically black colleges and universities (HBCU)

2018 Highlights

- Awarded $25,000 Academic Scholarships to 20 HBCU Students at 9 HBCU's
- Offered 2 Paid Internships
- Expanded the Williams-Franklin Foundation Board of Directors
- Developed Partnerships with Black Student Fund, Catalyst Network Foundation and 12 Days of Christmas, Inc.
- Conducted 2 Networking Events for Scholarship Awardees

www.wmsfranklinfoundation.org